

The Gold Standard in Automatic Scoring Solutions since 1989

Our Mission Statement:

"We are dedicated to providing the best automatic scoring system on the market today, using the latest technology at the lowest price. We would not be where we are without the support of all our customers, while taking the time to listen to their feedback and producing a scoring system with their valuable input on price and functionality. Our customers are why we are number 1 and continue to grow. Twelve Strike always remembers what really counts: OUR CUSTOMERS!"
